INFORMATION PROVIDED IN NOTEBOOK(S) TO THE COMMISSION IS KEPT ON FILE IN THE COMMUNITY AND PUBLIC WORKS OFFICE. CONTENTS OF THE NOTEBOOK(S) INCLUDES: PROOF OF PUBLICATION, PROOF OF NOTIFICATION, INSPECTION REPORTS AND PHOTOGRAPHS OF EACH STRUCTURE PRESENTED TO THE COMMISSION.

Mark Glenn, Chairman, called the meeting to order.

Consider abatement of 704 Connella

Lynn Henry stated that this structure has holes in the wall, is unoccupied, open for vagrants, deteriorated, is a fire hazard, front porch needs major repairs, and water heater is missing.

Richard Jackson, owner of record, stated that he has intentions to clean it up, but due to the weather he hasn't been able to do anything.

Mr. Jackson stated the house has been vacant for a year and a half. He stated he has every intention to bring this structure up to Code. He mentioned he just began receiving disability funding and he will use those funds to repair his house.

Mr. Henry emphasized the structure must be brought up to code within thirty (30) days, Mr. Jackson stated he didn't know if he will be done within thirty (30) days.

Craig Lindholm explained; if after thirty (30) days the structure is not up to code, this structure will be back on the demolition list.

A motion was made by Myron Stringer and seconded by Eddie Coe that the structure is declared unsafe and ordered demolition of the structure according to Sec. 5-66(3). Members voted unanimously for approval of the motion.

ORDER FOR STRUCTURE TO BE DEMOLISHED.

Consider abatement of 612 Connella

Mr. Henry stated the condition of this structure is abandoned and vandalized. This structure needs major repairs including plumbing and electrical work. He recommended demolition of the structure.

Sandra Carrol attended the meeting on behalf of her father Edward Gladney, Sr. Ms. Carrol stated her mother was the owner of the house, and in December 2003, her mother, Zenobie Gladney passed away. Ms Carrol stated her family has no desire to repair this structure. Ms. Carrol stated before her mother passed away she gave the house back to the mortgage company, so Ms. Carrol requested that all code violations, code enforcement citations cease because her father does not have any ties to this structure.

A motion was made by Mr. Coe that the structure is unsafe and order demolition of this structure, according to Sec. 5-66 (1) (3) Mr. Myron Stringer second that motion. Members voted unanimously for approval of the motion.
